

HOUSING SOLUTIONS PROCEDURE FOR EVICTION

PREVENTION/DEPOSIT ASSISTANCE

Community Action Team, Inc. has very limited funding to help clients who request housing financial assistance. We are constantly seeking funds to provide housing and energy financial assistance. However, given the high demand for this assistance we are often without available funds. Our policy is to provide financial assistance on a funding available, first come first serve basis using the following criteria:

Client Eligibility:

- Most programs require the applicant to be an established Columbia County Resident for 6 months or longer.
- Must prove that your household has ability to financially remain in current housing (We do not count Financial Aid as income).
- Must meet income eligibility.
- Must be homeless or at risk of homelessness.
- Due to funding restrictions Housing Solutions will not assist with: Single Room Occupancy, Halfway House, Drug Rehabilitation, and Rent to Own.

Intake Process:

- CAT staff will review the applications, determine eligibility, and notify the applicant of approval/denial within 7 days. During this process please be in contact with your landlord and make payment arrangements.
- If eligible, all required documentation must be submitted. Any rental assistance payments from CAT will be directly mailed to landlord, only if the landlord is willing to work with the tenant and CAT. Payable process takes about 7 to 14 business days.
- CAT staff will not steer clients into any particular apartment, houses, duplex or properties. We might make suggestions based on income eligibility or household needs/barriers. It is the client's ultimate responsibility to find suitable housing that best fits their needs.
